

Bo Hotmer Soccer Scholarship Award Request for Candidate Applications

Bo Hotmer was born in Blue Springs. He lived in Odessa and attended school there until he was in the third grade. Then Bo moved to Blue Springs with his Mom and brother P.J. He attended Blue Springs High School where he was going to try out for soccer his junior year. Bo played soccer in Odessa for two years and when he moved he began playing for Blue Springs Soccer Association. Bo had a love for all sports, especially soccer. Bo was killed in a tragic automobile accident on July 26, 2007, at the age of 16. Bo liked helping people, especially those less fortunate.

This scholarship was established by Bo's mom in his honor to benefit those who love soccer as he did.

This is a 3 year renewable scholarship in the amount of $500 per academic year, given proof of continuing to play soccer and a minimum college cumulative GPA of 3.0.
